Campus Events

Three special events will be held for those who would like to know more of the life and work of Eugene O'Neill, whose Long Day's Journey into Night opens at the Phoenix Theatre March 19. Director FREDERICK EDELL (theatre division) will discuss staging O'Neill, at 12.30 p.m. March 19 in E/A 144. On Friday, March 22, DR. PETER SMITH (classics) will examine the influence of Greek drama on O'Neill's work, at 12.30 p.m. in the Phoenix Theatre. Also in the theatre, a session on O'Neill's contribution to drama will be held March 23 at 2.00 p.m. Taking part as well as the two lecturers just mentioned will be Joy Coghill of the Vancouver Playhouse and DRS. ANN SADDLEMYER and ANTHONY JENKINS (English department).

The Alumni Association is bringing out its branding-irons and bottle-openers again for this year's western barbecue, to be held at the SUB March 30. The fun starts at 7.30 p.m. Anyone who has not yet reserved tickets should call MRS. PHYLLIS FLAVELLE at the alumni office (477-2315) SOON.

Neuropsychology Workshop

The department of psychology will be host to 80 specialists in fields related to neuro-psychology at the third annual workshop on the subject this Saturday and Sunday. Sessions start in SS 112 at 10 a.m. Saturday, under the chairmanship of DR. OTFRIED SPREEN, director of the neuropsychology laboratory here.

Research experts in brain damage from the Pacific Northwest will hear papers by two of North America's leading authorities -- Dr. Norman Geschwind, head of the department of neurology at the Boston University School of Medicine, and Dr. Manfred Meier, director of the University of Minnesota's neuropsychology laboratory. Dr. Geschwind speaks Saturday morning on speech disturbances after brain damage; Dr. Meier will speak Sunday on personality changes resulting from strokes and other physical impairment.

Chairmen of discussion sessions will be DR. FOUAD HAMDI, neurosurgeon and part-time lecturer in psychology, and DRS. GORDON HOBSON and EDWARD TRYK of the department. The workshop will be opened by the Hon. Wesley Black, Minister of Health and Hospital Insurance, and DR. MALCOLM TAYLOR, University President.

Faculty/Staff News

Plans for the Spring Convocation are well in hand, reports PROFESSOR GRANT MCORMOND (English), chairman of the committee on ceremonies and special events. Convocation will be held at 2.30 p.m. Saturday, May 25, breaking the Monday pattern established over recent years. As the ceremonies will take place in Centennial Stadium for the first time, seating is less restrictive. The Baccalaureate Service will be held at First United Church at 8 p.m. Friday, May 24.

"Animals at the Bottom of the Sea" is the title of a lecture to be given March 18 at the Vancouver Public Aquarium by DR. D. V. ELLIS (biology). The lecture is part of the extension course, "The Oceans," organized by the University of British Columbia.

Dr. I. D. Stevens, senior lecturer in organic chemistry at the University of Southampton, will lead an open seminar March 22 on a basic contrast between types of scientific study. He will discuss the "process" approach, and the ways on which this differs from the examination of systems at equilibrium. The session begins at 12.30 p.m. in ELL 060.

DR. R. VANCE PEAVY (education) will present a paper on modification of communicative behaviours at the annual conference of the Western Psychological Association to be held in San Diego March 28 to 30. The paper reports research being conducted here.

DR. W.R.D. SEWELL (geography) attended the first meeting of the National Advisory Committee on Water Resources Research in Ottawa earlier this month.

Arrangements have been made to administer the Graduate Record Examination here again April 27. DR. ESME FOORD (counselling and testing) asks that students wishing to write the test on that date be urged to pick up an application form immediately from the counselling office.

Faculty/Staff News

The second floor of the Clearihue Building will be open every Sunday in April for students crowded out of the McPherson Library, and for those who feel they might be. DEAN R. T. WALLACE (administration) announces that hours will be 8.30 a.m. to 12 midnight. The same hours will be maintained throughout Easter weekend, April 12 to April 15. Library hours at Easter will be: Friday, April 12, noon to midnight; Saturday, 8.30 a.m. to midnight; Sunday, noon to midnight; Monday, 8 a.m. to 1 a.m.

DR. W. J. MAUNDER (geography) has been awarded a grant by the Advisory Committee on Geographical Research to aid a project on "The Economic Climatology of Canada." Papers on his findings in climatology have appeared recently in the New Zealand Science Review and the Monthly Weather Review.

For those who like to plan their schedules well in advance, DR. JOHN PETER (English) announces that Dr. Maurice Harmon of University College, Dublin, will visit April 4 to speak on the middle and later poetry of W. B. Yeats. The lecture will be given in the Education-Arts lecture theatre at 4.30 p.m.

DR. D. V. ELLIS (biology) would welcome help with officiating chores at track and field meets to be held at Centennial Stadium. An instructional clinic for officials will be held at the stadium Saturday, March 30, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Dr. Ellis can be reached at local 308, or at 477-2522 in the evening.

About 30 "middle management" representatives from business, industry and government in Victoria will be on campus Saturday, March 23, for a day-long seminar on supervisory communications. In charge will be Professor R. S. Chapman, associate director of the division of continuing education, University of Calgary. For further information, call the evening division at local 395.
